Numb. 9652.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 11, to Saturday January 15, 1757.

Bruſſels, January 11.

ON Saturday Evening a Courier arrived here from Paris, with the Account of an Attempt made, on the 5th Inſtant, on the French King's Life; the Particulars of which are as follow: On the above-mentioned Day, the King went from Trianon to Verſailles, to viſit Madame Victoire. About Six in the Evening, as his Majeſty was juſt ſtepping into his Coach to return to Trianon, a Man who had concealed himſelf between the Hind Wheels, ruſhed forward, with his Hat on, made his Way to the King's Perſon, thro' the Guards, (one of whom he even ſhoved againſt the Dauphin) and ſtruck his Majeſty in the Right Side, of which however the King only complained by ſaying, That Man has given me a violent Blow, he muſt be either mad, or drunk. But having perceived that his Hand, which he clapped to his Side, was bloody, he ſaid, I am wounded; ſeize that Fellow, but don't kill him. His Majeſty was immediately carried to his Apartment. The Wound, (which from the very firſt was not thought dangerous) was given with a ſharp-pointed Knife, which glanced upwards between the 4th and 5th Rib, and is not of any conſiderable Depth. And, at the firſt Dreſſing, it was even judged that the Cure would be ſpeedy. That Night the King ſlept an Hour and a Quarter. The Villain, who committed this Attempt, is named Damien, and is a Native of Arras. The Weapon he made uſe of was found upon him, and proves to be a common Claſp Knife with two Blades. At firſt it was feared it might have been poiſoned, but he aſſured the contrary, and the Experiments that have ſince been made with it, on ſeveral Animals, have made good his Aſſertion. Another French Courier arrived here on Sunday Night, with an Account, that the Wound was ſo ſlight, that his Majeſty had been able to aſſiſt, on Saturday Morning, at a Council that was held at Verſailles.

War-Office, Nov. 30, 1756.

WHereas it has been repreſented to the King, that there are at this Time ſeveral Deſerters from the different Corps in His Majeſty's Service; His Majeſty hoping, that ſuch Deſerters may be hereby induced to return to their Duty, and that this Inſtance of His Clemency will have a due Influence on their future Behaviour, is pleaſed to grant His moſt Gracious Pardon to all Deſerters from His Majeſty's Land Forces, who ſhall ſurrender themſelves on or before the laſt Day of January next to the reſpective Corps to which they belong; or who ſhall within the ſame Time ſurrender themſelves to any other Corps in His Majeſty's Service, to the Intent they may either be ſent to their proper Corps, or ſerve in any other, according as His Majeſty may be pleaſed to direct; this Pardon not to extend to any Perſons now in actual Cuſtody for their Deſertion, nor to ſuch, who may at any Time before the ſaid laſt Day of January next, be apprehended or challenged as Deſerters, unleſs upon their being ſo apprehended or challenged, they do immediately make known the Corps from which they have deſerted.

And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Deſerters may have inliſted in other Corps, and be now ſerving therein, His Majeſty is likewiſe graciouſly pleaſed to grant His Pardon to all ſuch Offenders, (not being in actual Cuſtody for the ſame) and alſo to declare, It is His Royal Intention, that they ſhall continue to ſerve in the Corps in which they now are, without being moleſted or reclaimed by the Officers of the reſpective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

This Day is publiſhed,

VOLUME THE FIRST,

Containing

One Hundred and Twenty PLATES, with their DESCRIPTIONS, in FOLIO, of

A SET of the

FIGURES of PLANTS,

Adapted to the GARDENERS DICTIONARY.

By PHILIP MILLER, F. R. S.

Gardener to the Worſhipful Company of Apothecaries, at their Botanick Garden, in Chelſea, and Member of the Botanick Academy at Florence.

In this Performance all the Drawings have been made from the growing Plants, in the Garden at Chelſea, when in their beſt State of flowering, and their ſeveral generical Characters are exactly delineated from Nature, to which their Fruit and Seeds, when in Maturity, are added; ſo that a juſt Repreſentation of the Plants is exhibited.

Many of the rare Plants that are uſed in Medicine, which do not grow naturally in England, are interſperſed in this Work, and their ſeveral Titles given to them from Ray, Tournefort, and Linnæus, with Deſcriptions of their Differences from thoſe Plants which approach near them; and alſo the Countries of their natural Growth is mentioned, with Directions how they are to be treated in England.

As the Author has been many Years preparing the Materials for this Work, not only in making of the Drawings, but alſo in noting down his Obſervations, ſo he hopes to make this as complete a Performance as any of the Kind which has appeared; and, the rather, as his Correſpondence with moſt of the celebrated Botaniſts in Europe, has given him Opportunities to furniſh himſelf with a greater Variety of Materials, than perhaps can be found in any other Garden.

This is not a Collection from old Books, as may be ſeen by the original Drawings, at Mr. Rivington's in St. Paul's Church-yard, where thoſe who are curious may have an Opportunity of viewing them.

Printed for the Author, Philip Miller, at the Phyſick Garden, Chelſea; John Rivington in St. Paul's Church Yard; and James Rivington and James Fletcher in Pater-noſter Row.
